

Name: _____ Date: _____

Unit 1: Animal Adaptations Study Guide

Write the definition of each word.

1. Adaptation: _____
 2. Physical Adaptation: _____
 3. Behavior Adaptation: _____
 4. Instinct: _____
 5. Environment: _____
 6. Migration: _____
 7. Mimicry: _____
 8. Hearing: _____
 9. Sight: _____
 10. Smell: _____
 11. Touch: _____
 12. Taste: _____
 13. Reflects: _____
-
- |

Animals have unique internal and external structures that help them to survive in their environments. These are called adaptations. Describe the adaptations of the following animals.

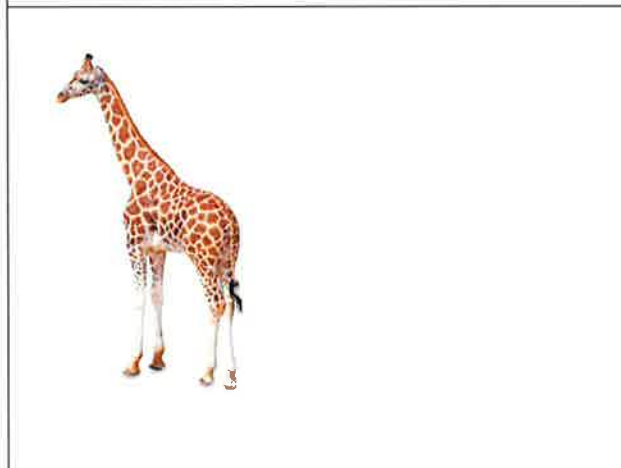

Turtle Shell:

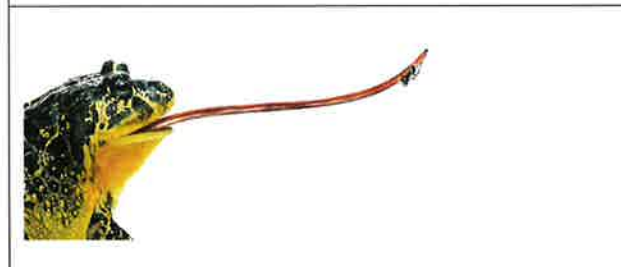

Eagle Beak:

Cat Whiskers:

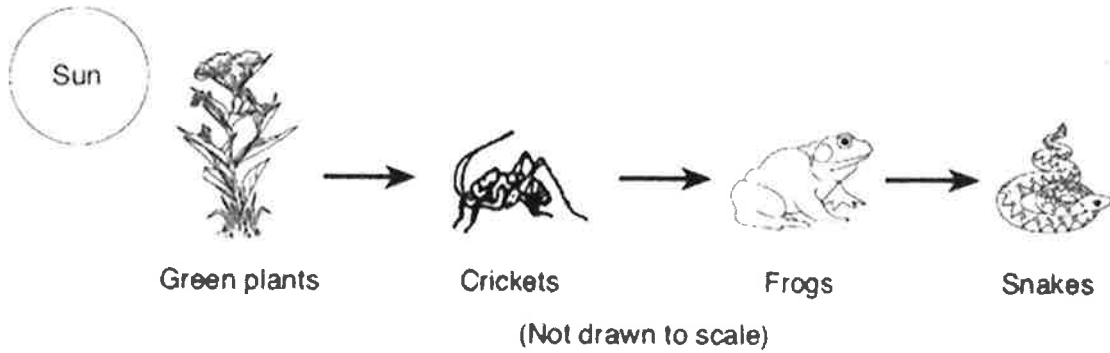

Giraffe Neck:

Frog Tongue:

Fill in the blanks below.

In this chain the predators are _____

Monarch butterflies migrate at this time of year _____

This helps them survive because _____

An animal might not survive if it was forced to move out of its natural environment because _____

An animal that lives in an environment that is always covered in snow is usually this color _____

A trait a baby bear cub could not inherit from his mother _____

This provides energy and nutrients to help an animal's body perform life functions _____

Gills and lungs help organisms to perform this function _____

Describe an animal preparing for a seasonal change _____

Animals need shelter in order to _____

The function of rabbit's big ears are to _____

